Everybody Sings! “The Old Country Church” arr. Marty Hamby
Walter Barton, soloist

Choir:

Oh I’d like to go back to that old country church to hear the songs of praise.
How the people would sing, it would make the rafters ring—
At that old country church.

Everybody:

Shall we gather at the river, the beautiful, the beautiful river,
Gather with the saints at the river that flows by the throne of God.

Solo:

Oh I’ll never forget at that old country church, how the glory of the Lord came down.
And the children would smile as they shouted down the aisle
Of that old country church.

Everybody:

In the sweet by and by, we shall meet on that beautiful shore;
In the sweet by and by, we shall meet on that beautiful shore.

Solo:

Then on Sunday to see all my friends so dear to me at that old country church,
When it came time for prayer, ev’rybody would be there
At that old country church.

Everybody:

Leaning, leaning, safe and secure from all alarms;
Leaning, leaning, leaning on the everlasting arms.

Solo:

Now the years have gone by and so many have died at that old country church;
But they’re on the other shore where they’ll sing forevermore like they did
At that old country church.

Choir first, then Everybody:

Oh I’m redeemed by love divine. Glory, glory, Christ is mine;
All to Him I now resign. I have been redeemed
At that old country church!

“Amazing Grace”

Traditional

Amazing grace! How sweet the sound—That saved a wretch like me!
I once was lost but now am found, Was blind but now I see.

‘Twas grace that taught my heart to fear, And grace my fears relieved;
How precious did that grace appear The hour I first believed.

The Lord has promised good to me, His word my hope secures;
He will my shield and portion be As long as life endures.

Through many dangers, toils and snares I have already come;
‘Tis grace hath brought me safe thus far And grace will lead me home.

When we’ve been there ten thousand years Bright shining as the sun,
We’ve no less days to sing God’s praise Than when we first begun.

Benediction
